Firenze (Firenze) - FLORENCE- VIA di SAN DOMENICO

In one of the most desired and exclusive Florence area, we are pleased to offer this wonderful villa of 526 sqm and 3.300 sqm of private park.

The villa was committed in 1949 by one of the richest Prato family. Prof. Aldo Bartalucci, a famous architect of the period, worked on the project.

The villa is surrounded by high stone walls and no one can see and poke into the property.

At the entrance we find a large square with a spacious double garage.

Going up the stairs to the main villa, totally dipped in the garden with plants and flowers in an enchanting atmosphere, we arrive to the beautiful mansion.

The house stands on three levels and counts 18 rooms and 5 panoramic terraces, with stunning view.

The ground floor consists in an hallway, some living rooms and lounges .

Above all, you can't help but notice the majestic wooden staircase which is an authentic true work of art.

Going up to the first floor we find a large living room with panoramic terrace, dining room, lounge bar, fireplace room kitchen, bedrooms and stairs to a delicious tavern for wine's collection.

On the top floor one more hallway, two bedrooms, one with a terrace, a double bathroom and a big loft area.

The external spiral stair, the wrought iron railings as well as wallpapers, ceramics were all made by the most famous artisans of the time.

All these details give the villa a unique charm.

In the garden we find a beautiful asymmetrical swimmingpool surrounded by trees, roses, plants.

The garden covers various terraces , one with a wooden burning oven, located on a lateral side.

Annexed to the boundary of the property is a spacious terraced garden, now used as roses and vegetables garden.

In the garden is possible to build a tennis court or a soccer field.
